

More details and information concerning the seminar

All seminars will be held simultaneously, so each participant can register for one course only.

However, there will be the opportunity to get to know the work of the other artists. The teachers will offer one-hour workshops and lectures which the participants can attend besides the seminar they have chosen.

In addition, there will be one hour of dancing daily, during which participants can learn round dances from various European countries under the guidance of Christoph Pelgen and Johannes Mayr.

The registration is valid as soon as we have received the registration and a deposit of 140.- € (cash, bank transfer or voucher check).

Together with the registration and the deposit you make a binding commitment to take the course. If you cancel your registration prior to 6 weeks before the beginning of the seminar, a charge of 50.- € will be withheld. prior to 4 weeks before the beginning of the seminar, a charge of 100.- €, will be withheld. prior to 1 weeks before the beginning of the seminar, the whole deposit of 140.- € will be withheld.

from that time we have to charge the whole amount of 220.- € for the course.

Attention! If the number of participants exceeds a certain limit, we will only be able to offer shared rooms, rooms in a nearby youth hostel or expensive hotel rooms.

Thus, timely registration is advisable. Rooms will be distributed according to the order of registrations.

Please bring your own harp. At an extra charge of 20.- € and timely reservation beginners can be provided with a limited number of instruments.

The fee is to be transferred together with the registration. Please bring your receipt for payment.

Please register as soon as possible, so the realization of the seminars can be assured.

The participants are not insured by the organizer, they assume all liability themselves!